

The Reinforce Self Advocacy Training Unit has a new job opportunity.

Would you like a job as a Peer Worker with our new team?

Would you like to learn new skills and help others?

Do you want to help people with intellectual disability speak up for themselves?

Are you good at listening and speaking to people?

Are you good at using the computer and the phone?

As a Peer Worker you will get the support and training you need to do the job well.

You will work with other Peer Workers and the Project Inclusion Worker to plan activities and make decisions.

Sometimes Peer Workers will go and talk to groups about what self-advocacy is and how people with intellectual disabilities can speak up!

Sometimes Peer Workers will write reports about what they are doing.

The Peer Workers will have lots of meetings. They will have lots of meetings over the computer using ZOOM!

The Reinforce office address is Ross House, 247 Flinders Lane Melbourne 3000.

This is where you will work.

As a Peer Worker you will work 5 hours a week.

This is a paid job. Peer workers are paid $35.04 for every hour they work.
